

PLACEMENT REPORT 2018-19

The Placement Session of 2018-19 marked another exceptionally successful session for Avenues- The Placement Cell. With students being placed across various roles of their choice, this perpetual success can be associated with the continuous support by our esteemed faculty members which led to a fruitful placement session. Team Avenues is immensely obliged to all the people whose efforts have made this process a new benchmark for success.

During the session, The Cell associated with the corporate giants like Ernst & Young, PwC India, Deloitte, S&P Global, D.E. Shaw, ID Insight, Byju's, BCG, McKinsey & Co., etc thereby providing the graduating batch with exceptional placement opportunities which gave them a chance to choose from diverse profiles that were complemented by rewarding pay packages. A total of 400 students registered for the placement session from multiple backgrounds including Mathematics, English, Statistics, Science, Economics, Commerce and so on.

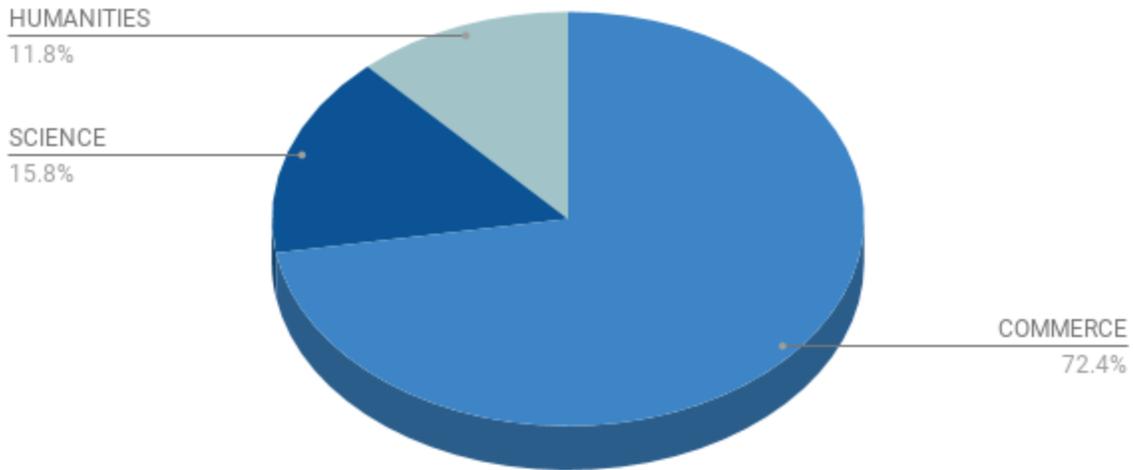

The immense confidence of the leading organizations in the exceptional capabilities of the students of Kirori Mal College was evinced in the placement session which saw 80+ companies offering an average of INR 5.11 LPA. Over 80 students got placed with the average CTC accepted being INR 5.01 LPA. The Highest package was valued at INR 20.5 LPA.

StreamWise Students Placed

During the session 2018-19, Avenues- The Placement Cell successfully placed 78 students from diverse academic backgrounds. The maximum opportunities were capitalized by the students of commerce stream, a satisfactory number of students from the science and humanities backgrounds were also able to avail the same. The stream-wise breakup of the placed students and average CTC can be seen below :

STREAMS	NUMBER OF STUDENTS PLACED
COMMERCE	52
SCIENCE	18
HUMANITIES	18

NUMBER OF STUDENTS PLACED

Average CTC

The confidence of the leading organizations in the calibre of the students of Kirori Mal college leads to an increase in the CTC offered for the Placement Session 2018-19, which was valued at INR 5.11 LPA. The average accepted CTC was valued at INR 4.94 LPA. The highest package was valued at INR 20.5 LPA offered by DE Shaw. The Cell has witnessed another remarkable year with recruiters rolling out offers crossing a gross worth of more than INR 4,00,00,000.

ON CAMPUS COMPANIES

OFF CAMPUS COMPANIES

Stream Wise Average CTC (In LPA)

Sector-Wise Companies

With almost 50% recruiters belonging to the Consulting Sector; BCG, Mckinsey & Co., EY GDS, Meritnation, BYJU's, Schoogle were the top recruiters. In the Banking and Financial Services sector, the cell hosted various companies like DE Shaw, Deloitte, ICICI Bank, Protiviti, PwC

India, Tresvista and many more. Several other notable companies like Dorling Kindersley, ITC, L&T Construction, Wipro offered diverse profiles with lucrative packages.

Profiles Offered

The Placement Session was complemented with 78 renowned organizations offering a diverse range of job roles including Business Development, Analyst, Content, Associate, Research, and many more to students from 21 diverse courses in the fields of Science, Commerce, and Humanities.

Profiles Offered

Professional Profiles

Avenues- The Placement Cell of Kirori Mal College works constantly to provide a variety of opportunities to suit the needs of the students who continue to prove their performance in academics as well as in the corporate world. Along with career/internship opportunities, the Cell also provides students with opportunities from various professional profiles like Articleship and Actuaries.

The distinctive number of offers this year portrays the industry's confidence in Kirori Mal College for the quality of students in a dynamic and competitive market. Reputed companies like Mazars, AARK, Chartered Club shared Articleship opportunities with the students. Venerated companies like PwC and Willis Towers Watson also provided Actuarial profiles for the students of KMC.

During this session, the number of fellowship profiles offered was attested by renowned recruiters like Yes Foundation, Transforming India and Teach for India. Out of the specified companies, the highest stipend offered for Articleship profile was offered by AARK. The highest stipend offered for fellowship profile was by Teach for India.

Comparative Statistics

(For the session 2017-18 and 2018-19)

Over the past session, we have been successful in gradually and steadily improving the placement statistics in the form of an increase in both accepted and offered CTC.

1. The Highest CTC offered in 2018-19 was INR 20.5 LPA which was 7.89% more than the highest CTC in 2017-18, INR 19 LPA.
2. The average CTC of the top 20 companies in 2018-19 was 8.79 LPA as compared to 7 LPA in 2017-18.
3. In terms of average CTC offered, session 2018-19 witnessed an increase from 4.6 LPA in 2017-18 to 5.11 LPA.

