

PLACEMENT REPORT 2019-20

Team Avenues yet again concludes another Placement Session for the batch of 2019-20 with soaring success. This success is accredited to our esteemed faculty members, whose continuous support led to the aspiring students of our college being placed across various roles of their choices. The Cell reinforced the faith of our various past recruiters and built new associations, which amounted to 58% of the total number of recruiters. Companies such as Futures First, Samagra Consulting, Genpact, Bain Capability Network etc recruited for the first time. The session also witnessed an all-out increase in the statistics and set new milestones with an increase of almost 10% in the gross package and a diversified mix of 92 regular and first-time recruiters validating their credence in the college.

During the session, the Cell associated with corporate giants like Bain Capability Network, Ernst & Young, PwC UK, Deloitte, Grant Thornton, Genpact Risk Consulting LLP, D.E. Shaw, Yamaha, Byju's, Futures First, Gartner etc. This provided the graduating batch with exceptional placement opportunities, giving them a chance to choose from diverse profiles being complemented by rewarding pay packages. A total of 400 students registered for the placement session from across courses such as Mathematics, English, Statistics, Physics, Economics, B.Com., and so on.

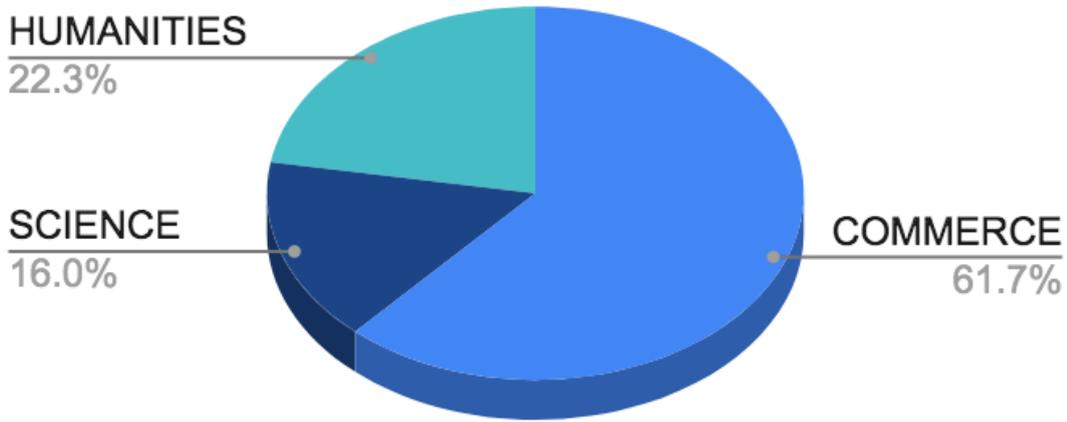

The immense confidence of the leading organizations in the exceptional capabilities of the students of Kirori Mal College was evident in the placement session which saw 90 companies offering an average of INR 5.64 LPA. In all 94 students got placed with the average CTC accepted being INR 5.65 LPA. The highest package was valued at INR 20 LPA by D.E Shaw. The gross value of all the packages amounted to a staggering 7.85 crores! These figures are a testimony to the faith shown by our recruiters in the calibre, grit, and determination of students of Kirori Mal College.

Stream Wise Students Placed

During the session 2019-20, Avenues- The Placement Cell successfully placed 94 students from diverse academic backgrounds. The maximum opportunities were capitalized by the students of commerce stream, along with a competent number of students from the science and humanities backgrounds.

STREAMS	NUMBER OF STUDENTS PLACED
COMMERCE	58
SCIENCE	15
HUMANITIES	21

NUMBER OF STUDENTS PLACED

STREAM WISE AVERAGE CTC (IN LPA) vs STREAMS

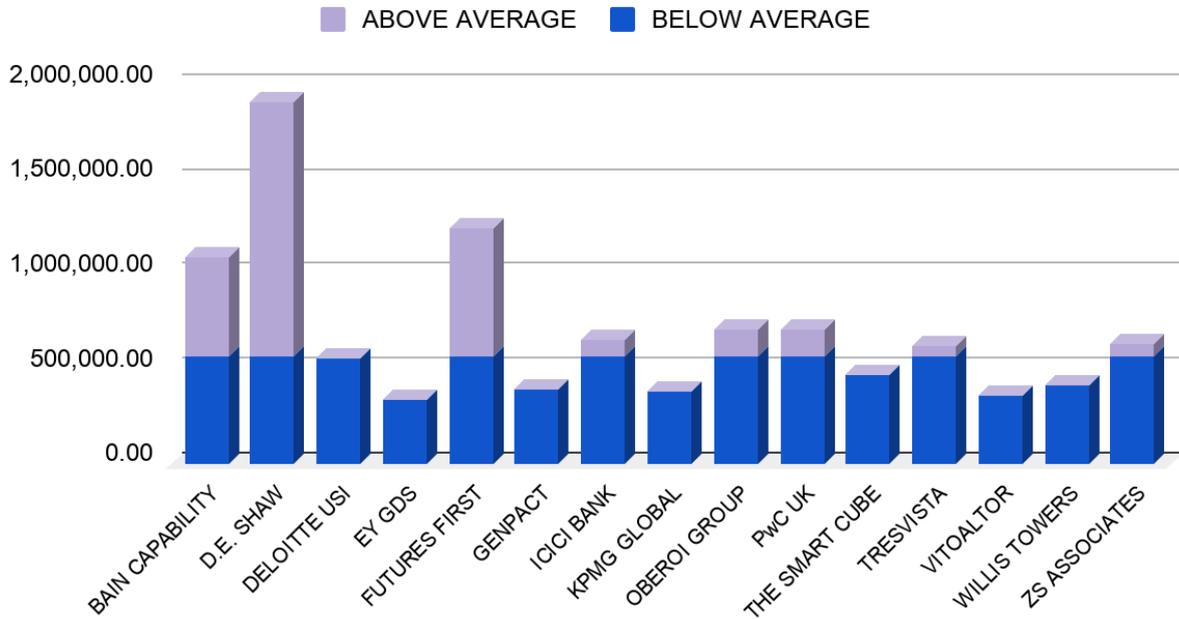

The above graph depicts the proportional comparison of average packages offered to students of different streams.

Average CTC

The mounting conviction of the leading organizations in the calibre of the students of Kirori Mal College reflected in the increase in the CTC offered for the Placement Session 2019-20, which was valued at INR 5.64 LPA. The average accepted CTC was valued at INR 5.66 LPA. The highest package was valued at INR 20 LPA offered by D.E Shaw. The Cell has witnessed another remarkable year with recruiters rolling out offers crossing a gross worth of more than INR 7,80,00,000.

ON CAMPUS COMPANIES

OFF CAMPUS COMPANIES

Sector Wise Companies

This Placement Season welcomed a mix of more than 90 companies from a well balanced, holistic and a diverse set of domains. The cell believes in allowing students to engage with companies from domains guaranteed to polish their career ladder and pave the path to their goals. With almost 22% and 21% of the companies belonging to the Consulting sector and Banking and Financial Services sector respectively, this Placement season has witnessed unprecedented growth. With offers coming in from top-notch companies like Bain Capability Network, DE Shaw, Deloitte, PwC UK, ICICI Bank, EY GDS, BYJU's, Samagra, the cell has successfully concluded yet another session. There has been a remarkable jump in figures as compared to the previous years and there is confidence in surpassing these records with every successive year to come. Apart from this, the cell also hosted various big-name companies from the Education and Research domain, both bringing a total of 27 companies. Several other notable companies like Futures First, Genpact, Gartner, L&T Construction offered diverse profiles with lucrative packages.

Domain Wise Average CTC

Tier Wise Companies and Average CTC

Tier	AVG
Dream Tier (9.00 and above)	1100470
Tier 1(6-9LPA)	714080
Tier 2 (4-6 LPA)	488370
Tier 3 (3.2-4 LLPA)	368210

The tier wise listing of companies, show the diversity of sectors and profiles offered at every tier. Tier 3 recorded an average CTC of INR 3.7 LPA including companies like Genpact, EY GDS, whereas tier 2 recorded an average of INR 4.9 LPA with companies like Deloitte USI. The top two tiers, Tier 1 including companies like Zycus, ICICI Bank and Dream Tier including companies like DE Shaw, Bain Capability Network recorded an average of INR 7.1 LPA and INR 11.004 LPA respectively.

Profiles Offered

The Placement Session was complemented with 90 renowned organizations offering a diverse range of job roles including Management, Business Development, Analyst, Content, Associate, Research, and many more to students from 21 diverse courses in the fields of Science, Commerce, and Humanities.

Professional Profiles

Avenues- The Placement Cell of Kirori Mal College works constantly to provide a variety of opportunities to suit the needs of the striving students who continue to prove their proficiency in academics as well as in the corporate world. Along with career/internship opportunities, the Cell also provides students with opportunities of various professional profiles like Articleship and Actuaries.

The distinctive number of offers this year portrays the industry's confidence in Kirori Mal College for the quality of students in a dynamic and competitive market. Reputed companies like KPMG India, Mazars, Grant Thornton, AARK shared Articleship opportunities with the students. Venerated companies like PwC and Willis Towers Watson also provided Actuarial profiles for the students of KMC.

During this session, the number of fellowship profiles offered was attested by renowned recruiters like Young India Fellowship , Gandhi Fellowship, Aavishkar, India Fellow Program, Fair Project Fellowship, Teach for India, Lamp Fellowship and Vedica Scholars. Out of the specified companies, the highest stipend offered for the Articleship profile was offered by AARK. The highest stipend offered for fellowship profile was by Teach for India and Lamp Fellowship.

Comparative Statistics

(For the session 2019-20 and 2018-19)

Over the session, the cell has been successful in steadily improving the placement statistics by working on increasing both accepted and offered CTC. This session ended with 58% of the total recruiters being first time recruiters.

1. The average CTC of the top 20 companies in 2019-20 was INR 11.23 LPA as compared to INR 8.79 LPA in 2018-19.
2. In terms of average CTC offered, session 2019-20 witnessed an increase from INR 5.11 LPA in 2018-19 to INR 5.64 LPA.
3. The average CTC accepted for 2019-20 was INR 5.66 LPA as compared to INR 5.01 LPA in the previous session.
4. The gross packages crossed the mark of staggering 7.85 crores as compared to 7 crores in the previous placement session.

COMPARATIVE STATISTICS

