

GLOBAL POLITICS

Rupak Dattagupta

With a comparative and conceptual framework, Global Politics, first edition is an effort towards opening the possibilities of intellectual navigation and conversations. This book attempts to capture the essence of the new global phenomenon and the emerging world order in their varied manifestations. The highlight of this book is its comprehensive nature, where all the major aspects and challenges of the globalization process, along with new transformations have been dealt with. A book of this nature apart from students will also evince interest of those preparing for competitive examinations and people associated with the corporate world.
