College organizes Self Défense Training Program.

College also organizes the Self Defence Training Programs for the girl students on a regular basis.

b) Counselling: Mental health and well-being of its students and staff (teaching/non-teaching) members are the prime concern of the college, therefore the College has a visiting counsellor to provide psychological consultation. Our counsellor is a Clinical Psychologist who visits the college three days a week to attend to the psychological needs of the students and staff. Besides face-to-face consultation and tele-counselling, workshops and meetings are also conducted. A separate room is provided for such consultations. College also has a visiting doctor for any medical needs or emergencies. We have a medical room for doctors which has easy access from the girl's common
