The increase in sanctioned seats in 2019-20 and 2020-21 is due to the inclusion of Economically Weaker Section (EWS) seats in two tranches. During the last five years from 2016 to 2020, the average admissions against the sanctioned seats are 128.56%.

The state-wise admission map indicates representation of student's community from different geographical areas of our country.
