Vallabh Bhai Patel. The students were taught about the significance of unity in diversity and they were motivated to unite irrespective of any religion, caste, or gender by reciting slogans with placards in their hands. As this day is also the death anniversary of former Prime Minister of India late Mrs. Indira Gandhi, the light was thrown on her sacrifices and contributions for the country and children remembered her by keeping two minutes of silence for her noble deeds. At last stationery and chocolates were also distributed among children.

Thus we also celebrated the last day of the Sahyog session of this year by sharing smiles on those innocent faces.

Vigilance Awareness Week

On Nov 3, 2017, unit celebrated 'Vigilance Awareness Week'. The topic of discussion for the program was 'Vigilance as a Weapon to Check Corruption'. ### A CONVERSATION WITH DR. SHASHI THARUR

April 2018, SAHAS, The Women Empowerment Cell of Kirori Mal College in collaboration with Gandhi Ambedkar Study Circle, St. Stephens College organized a discussion with Dr. Shashi Tharoor, an author, a politician, and former international civil servant. Dr. Tharoor satisfied students' curiosity with his experience and extraordinary eloquence. In his opening statement, he revealed his experiences as a student and his journey from just another student to being a diplomat, an author, and a politician.

The most interesting part of the session was his incident of interviewing Mrs. Indira Gandhi for a swiss youth magazine, he told that he interviewed her not once but twice. Dr. Shashi Tharoor's combination of wit, charm, wry humor and intelligence made the session worth attending.

This year proved to be very successful, rich with enriching activities and full of zeal volunteers. Many Important themes were acknowledged and discussed this year. The enthusiasm of all volunteers was exceptional and motivating. We wish that next year continues to be a successful run and the enthusiasm continues. We wish we continue to keep discussing many more of such thought-provoking and introspecting topics that keep enlightening everyone and inspires everyone to take the right step.
