- The National Service Scheme, Kirori Mal College celebrated AMBEDKAR JAYANTI on 14th April, 2022 in the Academic Auditorium, Kirori Mal College.

The event was started with the speech of the programme officer, NSS-KMC; Prof. Ram Sunil Kumar Lalji wherein he familiarized the audience by the idea behind celebrating this day. He told everyone that the nation celebrates Ambedkar Jayanti every year to commemorate the birth of Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar who was a key architect of the Indian Constitution. He was an Indian Jurist, politician, philosopher, economist and historian.

Then the stage was taken by Akhilesh Bharti sir. He enlightened the audience with the persona of Dr. B.R Ambedkar and his life. He inspired the students by sharing the life story of this great personality in brief. Since, Dr. B.R Ambedkar is also known as the Father of Indian Constitution, therefore, getting motivated by knowing the real-life problems faced and various challenges which came in the path of providing the nation with the most reliable and worldwide acceptable law book i.e. The Indian Constitution became the best part of the day.

- The National Service Scheme, KMC organized its Annual Cultural cum Sports Meet "UMANG'22" was celebrated offline on 16th April, 2022 in the Activity Centre (NCC ground).

All the volunteers of the National Service Scheme which include students from different courses and years and thus from entirely different backgrounds collectively worked for so many days before the event took place to make this day a success. The students of the village, Chandrawal were the chief guests as well as the participants of Umang'22.

- In the sports segment of the meet, there were 13 games organized for the students in total and for this all the participants were divided into three categories, the first being students of class Ist to Vth followed by the group of students of class VIth to VIIIth and then students of class IXth to XIIth. These categories were made so that every student can enjoy and grow among the people of his/her own age and hence among the ones having similar interests of sports.

This great day ended with a long list of winners of different games and an even longer list of smiling faces which itself made this event the most successful of its own kind.

FOOTFALL – 147 ( 77 Volunteers + 70 students)

- On 22nd April, 2022, on the occasion of EARTH DAY, 2022, we the volunteers of NSS-KMC carried out a cleanliness drive in the college campus in the morning and ensured that every corner of the college is neat and clean. The drive was done with great zeal and dedication in order to protect our mother nature and to make it heaven.

The volunteers were divided into groups under the supervision of 2 second year volunteer(s) in order to clean the college campus in a more efficient manner at different college campus locations. Each group was provided with a dustbin, dustbin bags, broom, dust pan and various gloves sets according to the number of volunteers. The drive went for hours with seriousness and love towards our environment.

We also pledged to take our little but effective steps to save the environment and make this planet a place worth living in for everyone.

- NSS KMC organized an event on the occasion of “National Unity Day” to celebrate the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhai Patel. The session took place in the Academic Auditorium on 31st October, 2022 from 10:00 a.m. onwards. The Co-convenor, NSS KMC Dr. Vandana Choudhary; Teacher Invites, Dr. Mehdi Hussain and Dr. Shailendra Kumar graced the event with their presence.

Starting the Event, the audience were made aware about the significance of National Unity day which was followed by Pledge taking Ceremony and Preamble reading by the President of NSS KMC, Mr. Ujjwal Khatri. The volunteers and the audience took the pledge to uphold the diversity and integrity of our nation. After the Preamble reading, the attendees were familiarized with Article 51A of the constitution i.e. Fundamental Duties of every citizen. These warn Indian citizens against any anti-national and anti-social activities. These help the judicial institutions for examining and monitoring the constitutional validity of a law. They also obligate all Indians to promote the spirit of common brotherhood, protect the environment and public property, develop scientific temper, abjure violence, and strive towards excellence in all spheres of life.

The team took this forward by a speech competition on the topic "Sardar Patel's Vision of Corruption Free India." The hosts for the speech Competition started the competition by sharing the topic of the speech Competition, announcing the honorable judges of the event and reading out the rules of the competition for all the participants. Thereafter, all the participants shared their views one by one on being called out by their names. The outstanding performances of speech competition was complimented with the NSS style clap by all the NSS volunteers alongside engaging the audience to do the same. The song which is an important part of NSS programmes and celebrations, that is the NSS song was played in the background, which all the people present there sang along.

Towards the end of the event, after evaluation of performances of the speech competition by our honourable judges Dr. Mehdi Hussain and Dr. Shailendra Singh; 1st, 2nd and 3rd positions were declared. The judges also gave advice to all the participants on the things which need to be improved while giving a speech. They also delivered a closing remark in which they applauded the NSS team for their successful event. Also, the co-convenor Dr. Vandana Chaudhary mentioned gleefully that she was quite happy to see the NSS volunteers actively participating in the organization and conducting the programme faultlessly. Samarth, Rohini Shukla and Ajay Singh Choudhary who won 1st, 2nd and 3rd places respectively were felicitated by prizes distributed by our judges and our co-convenor.

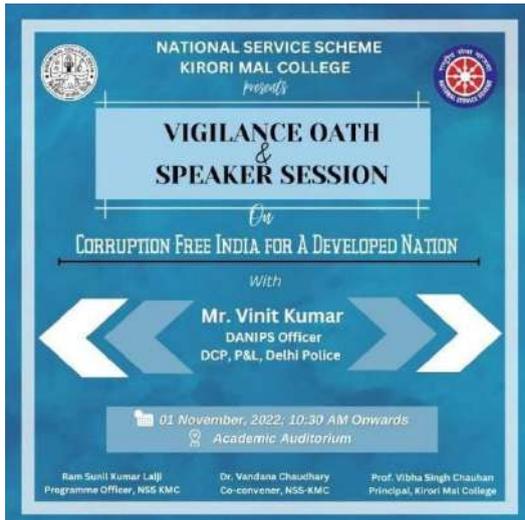

All the other participants were praised and applauded too for their performances in the speech competition. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Shrishti Bihman, the vice president of NSS KMC. A memorable day came to an end, and the participants returned home with great joy. This was an educational and enjoyable event conducted on the occasion of 'National Unity Day' which saw active participation of the participants and the enthusiasm of the volunteers.

DECEMBER

- The NAAC Peer Team visited Kirori Mal College on 19th & 20th December, 2022. The preparations were on from the previous few days. A PowerPoint presentation was made enlisting all the past activities conducted/ planned/ organized by NSS- KMC Unit in the past 5 years, including Each One, Teach One Programme, Aashayein: Help Yourself Festival, the Women’s Conclave, Umang: the cultural cum sports meet, various cleanliness and plantation drives, and the like. The day before the visit i.e., on the 18th of December, we were allotted the spaces for our 10*10 stall in the library compound. On the same day, we affixed the posters and banners depicting the photographs of some of our talented volunteers who represented the NSS-KMC Unit at various National-level Integration Camps, another one showcasing our shining stars, those students whom we teach and who scored very pretty well in their board examinations. The charts depicting the whole Unit Council (2022-23) and one that had NSS- Lakshya Geet on it, were also displayed on the sta.

On Day 1 i.e., 19th December, 2022, there was hustle and bustle all around the campus since the dawn, eight of our volunteers reported early in the morning and started working on the leftover work. The whole library compound was occupied by the stalls of different societies of the college. Everyone was busy beautifying their respective stalls. Our whole stall was decorated very beautifully using the art & craft materials prepared by our volunteers. We also decorated one display board with a reminiscence concept comprising beautiful pictures of the successful execution of all our preceding activities. The artifacts made by our Sahyog students during Aashayein, which we sell to earn revenue, which is later utilized to financially support the underprivileged, were also displayed on the table. We also got one brochure printed out that highlighted the main functioning and activities of our unit including the two key projects - Sahyog and Sahas, so that the team can get an idea about what NSS is, at one glance. The team arrived at around 10 a.m. on campus. Thereafter, it visited the main building, the sports complex, and later the team was escorted to the Seminar Hall, wherein the team interacted with the alumni circle of KMC spread across the world, those abroad joined via online mode, then interaction took place with the parents who accompanied their wards that day, later with the students as well. Volunteers were also provided with refreshments during lunchtime. Afterward, the team set its visit to all the colorful stalls set up by various societies, turn by turn. The NAAC PEER Team also asked various questions pertaining to the functioning of different societies. When our turn came, all the team members showed keen interest and appreciated our work and the cause for which we work. Our Vice President, Ms. Shrishti gave a detailed overview of the whole stall which depicted the various activities and highlights of the KMC Unit of NSS. One of the team members asked us about one of the recent activities that we organized and how much funds could be raised through that activity which can be counted as a major success of the unit during this academic year. Our President, Mr. Ujjwal answered his question very proficiently by quoting the example of UMANG: The Cultural-cum-Sports Meet that we conducted in April 2022, which proved to be a successful event. After paying a visit to every stall, the team was escorted to the Ashoka lawn, wherein Sensation, the Dancing Society; Musoc, the Music Society; and Players, the Dramatics society had their performances lined up. Meanwhile, all the volunteers were served evening refreshments. It was a truly wholesome experience and a wonderful evening, full of music and drama. Everyone enjoyed it very much.
